

DigitalCity

DigitalCity drives the growth and development of a vibrant digital economy throughout Tees Valley.

We deliver digital business start-up, growth and cluster development activity, including supporting adoption and disruption of digital technologies throughout all sectors of the economy. The local representative on the day will be Scott Watson.