

Enterprise Revolution

Enterprise Revolution provide 1-1 support and training to local people who are wanting to start a business and we also help existing businesses to grow and expand through training courses, business events and one off projects. Many of our services are fully funded which means they are free to access for local businesses. The representative on the day will be Maria Lannon.