

NBSL

NBSL are an enterprise agency delivering and running funding programmes that help North East and Tees Valley businesses by providing grants for business improvement. NBSL helped existing businesses across the North East to create over 1,000 jobs with our funding and support programmes.

Current offer in Tees Valley is the Business Compass Leadership and Management programme supporting projects that increase leadership and management capability and/or capacity within a business. The representative for the day will be Jonpaul Heron