

Redcar & Cleveland Borough Council – Procurement Team

Redcar & Cleveland Borough Council's Commissioning and Procurement Team will be there to provide information on public sector procurement processes, including where to find public sector contract opportunities, how to access and register on the Council's e- procurement system and how to access free procurement training opportunities. The representative on the day will be Michelle Gray.