

School for Social Entrepreneurs

The School for Social Entrepreneurs (SSE) provides learning and development programmes which support social entrepreneurs to start, scale-up and strengthen businesses and organisations which use their profits to tackle social issues (known as social enterprises). The SSE is not a traditional school. Their learning programmes are designed to be inspiring, action-based and accessible.