Welcome to Between the Tides!

Welcome to Between the Tides, a brand-new free festival of adventure and exploration, imagination and messiness for children, young people and families of Redcar & Cleveland and beyond.

Taking place across Redcar Town Centre on Saturday 26 & Sunday 27 August, immerse yourself in a cast of colourful characters and pop-up performances. Look out for friendly giants and petulant princesses, nice nose admirers and proud sea captains as our town explodes into a fantastic spectacle of creativity, where fairy tales become reality and your wildest dreams take shape right here on our streets!

- BSL interpreted
- Quiet space
- Messy
- Moving
- Indoor
- Noisy
- Made by Young People

Between the Tides is free and it's accessible to everyone so come along and get stuck in.

Get creative with one of our free workshops, make a collective clay creation or a sea-crown! Help our storytellers weave playful tales of wonder and discovery! Learn how to make a puppet laugh and a monster cry!

There's nothing better than getting involved, taking part and making memories. And where better to do it than Redcar? We can't wait for you to experience our shiny new festival!

Things to see, do and create!

Lives of Clay

Lives of Clay - The Clay Collective 📍 Tuned In! 🕒 Sat & Sun 12pm, 3pm

Lives of Clay a rich tapestry of tales brought to life through classical Indian dance, original music and half a ton of clay.

Drawing on Teesside's rich history of pottery, this performance celebrates the enduring nature of clay.

If clay could talk, what would it say? Would it tell us stories of strong, powerful women from ancient myth and modern times? Would it conjure fables and fantasies? A magical performance unlike anything you will have seen before.

Sand Sculpture workshops - Sand in Your Eye
📍 Majuba Beach 🕒 Sat & Sun 11am-5pm

A free, drop-in workshop play activity, accessible for all children with their grown-ups! Learn how to create the best sand art by the very best in the business!

Join Sand In Your Eye sand sculptors as they take inspiration from the British seaside to create an incredible sand sculpture. Fantastical sea creatures or a flotilla of boats – we can't wait to see what they sculpt on our shores.

Sand Sculptures

Giant's Picnic

Giant's Picnic - A Theatre Hullabaloo Little Wonder
📍 Tuned In! 🕒 Sat and Sun 11am-5pm

Ever wondered what giants eat? Turns out they like nothing better than a good old picnic! And guess what – you're all invited!

So if you've always wanted to stack the biggest cheese sandwich tower, roll with sausages or jump into a doughnut then come on down!

Giant's Picnic is a Theatre Hullabaloo Little Wonder with oversized food for supersized play.

A free, drop-in play activity accessible for all and suitable for all children under 7 and their grown-ups.

Tuned In!

Flood

Flood - Theatre Temoin

Tuned In!

Sat & Sun 11.15am, 4pm

Dive into Flood – a watery, acrobatic adventure that makes a real splash.

The year is 2030 and the tide is turning. The world's oceans have become volatile and dangerous. Three strangers meet on the high seas. A storm is coming...

Programmed following feedback from our children and young people who cite the Climate Crisis as one of their number one concerns, Flood is a brilliantly visual spectacle that takes you on an epic journey to discover why our coastline and communities have become seasick.

6-7

Whale - Circo Rum Ba Ba

High Street

Sat & Sun 11am, 11.30am, 1pm, 1.30pm, 3pm, 3.30pm

You're in for a whale of a time! Kick off your shoes and squeeze into the belly of a life-sized inflatable whale.

Enter a magical seascape kingdom. Meet a shipwrecked pirate with a treasure tale to tell and a real life mermaid with a mysterious secret.

Encounter a dizzying cast of sea creatures as you join their battle to survive in an ocean full of rubbish.

Numbers are limited, so please arrive early to avoid disappointment.

The Whale

Got Your Nose

Got Your Nose - Tin Arts

High Street

Sat only 12.30pm, 2.30pm, 4.30pm

The Nostrillas are here to find the finest nose to add to their collection. Will you help them pick it? Sargeant Snoot, Monsieur Atchoo, Mia Buttonnose and Al Picket are all on the scent...it's snot a job to be sniffed at! A madcap dance show for all the family.

High Street

For the People, By the People - Whippet Up

High Street

Sun only 12.15pm, 2.15pm and 4pm

A Skinningrove Merman. The Handale Wyrn. The Boggle and the Heroic Tale of Henry Hood. Whippet Up bring local coastal folklore to life with their handcrafted puppet theatre, colourful costumes and a wonderfully diverse cast of volunteers and performers.

A family friendly show with everything you see and hear created by local people who find, or are referred into, Whippet Up's amazing wellbeing sessions.

Whippet Up

Out of the Deep Blue - Autin Dance Theatre ↔

📍 High Street 🕒 Sat 11.30am, 2pm, 4.15pm;
Sun 11am, 1.30pm, 4.15pm

Meet Eko - a spectacular 13 feet tall giant who rises out of the sea and befriends a little girl called Violet. Together they create a magical story inspired by themes that children hold close to their hearts like the climate emergency and threats to coastal communities like our own.

A mesmerising and beautiful performance full of dance, movement and music.

Warrior - The Imaginarium (YP)

📍 High Street 🕒 Sat only 2pm and 4pm

As a beacon for community dance and performance for children and young people in Redcar, we knew we wanted to invite the Imaginarium to Between the Tides. Join us for their previously co-created piece Warrior in the High Street!

The Imaginarium is a creative arts studio for young people that offer accessible workshops and activities to a range of ages across the year.

Luminarium - Architects of Air 🧠

📍 Kirkleatham Museum Grounds
🕒 Thurs 24, Fri 25, Sat 26 & Sun 27 Aug 10am-7pm

Enter a world of wonder as the amazing Tercederix Luminarium takes up residence in the grounds of Kirkleatham Museum. Be transported to a place of luminescent light and colour in this incredible immersive installation. Explore the dazzling maze of winding paths and soaring domes. Get lost in a magical labyrinth of saturated light tunnels.

Each visitor has their own way of exploring the structure - some like to see every twist and turn; others like to find a quiet spot and let the luminarium work its magic as it soothes, calms and enchants. We encourage you to explore in your own way!

Key info:

Children under the age of 16 must be accompanied by an adult.

Tickets from £3 at www.redcarcleveland.co.uk/enjoy

Walk-up tickets can be purchased between 11am and 5pm at Kirkleatham Museum reception.

The Luminarium is accessible to wheelchair users

Wordplay Workshop

Wordplay Workshop - Lisette Auton

Redcar Library Sat 11am, 12.30pm Drop in

We all know lots of words. But do you know what happens when you mix them up? Put them in the wrong order? Give them their own voice?

Come along to this brilliantly informal session with author Lisette Auton and find out. Bring your grown-ups – they might learn a thing or two too!

Quiet in the Library? Not on Our Watch!

Books - Tit for Tat

Redcar Library Sat 12.30am & 3.15pm; Sun 12.30pm & 3.30pm

Part of our Quiet in the Library programme, Books! is anything but...

It's a joyously raucous romp of absurdity that brings together acrobats, fire eaters and circus performers.

Presented by four bedraggled book enthusiasts travelling from town to town on a mission to protect literature, these hardback heroes are looking for radical reading enthusiasts to support their wordy cause.

This is a highly visual performance and therefore accessible for d/Deaf and HOH audiences, as well as non-English speakers.

Books - Tit for Tat

Big Little Gigs

Redcar Library Sunnyside Jazz Band - Saturday 4pm The Tamla All Stars - Sunday 4pm

Ever wished you could take your little ones to a gig? Well now you can!

Big Little Gigs is a family music project that aims to inspire a love of live music in children by putting on bands and musicians that the whole family can enjoy – Big and Little!

On Saturday they will be bringing New Orleans style jazz with the Sunnyside Jazz Band. And on Sunday we turn back the clock to the heady days of Motown with The Tamla All Stars.

Each day, between 12pm and 3pm, the team from Big Little Gigs will be hosting free craft workshops to really liven up the library and get gig-ready!

Tickets £2.50 (Redcar & Cleveland residents) & £5 for everyone else.

Everyday Monsters

Everyday Monsters Workshop - James Harris

Redcar Library Saturday 11am-3pm Drop in

'You made us laugh so much one of the kids is having a nosebleed!'

We can't promise nosebleeds but we can promise an hilarious monster imagining session with local author The Unbelievable James Harris. An absolute superstar of creative inspiration, let's make some magical monsters! Drop in workshop.

Esplanade and Boating Lake

Jurassic Puppets - Theatre Illumiere ↔
📍 Esplanade 🕒 Sun 11am, 12noon, 2pm, 2.30pm, 3.45pm

ROARRRR! Are you ready for the Jurassics?

Redcar and its surrounding beaches are well known for their incredible fossil discoveries. And now we have fossils that move! Theatre Illumiere are bringing their meticulously reconstructed giant dinosaur skeletons on walkabout in Redcar Town Centre.

Get up close and personal with the jaws of a 20-foot T-Rex, come face to face with two hungry Velociraptors and dodge the horns of a life-sized Triceratops!

Theatre for One - Lempen Puppet Theatre Company
📍 The Beacon 🕒 Sun 12pm - 1.30pm, 2.30pm - 4pm

Imaginative, spellbinding, surprising and sometimes bonkers, Lempen's whirlwind Theatre for One productions are a fast and furious three-minute romp.

Combining puppetry, storytelling, light music and fun, take your place at this one-off Theatre for One!

Take your pick from three different productions – The Belly Bug; Ear Today, Gone Tomorrow & Dr Frankenstein.

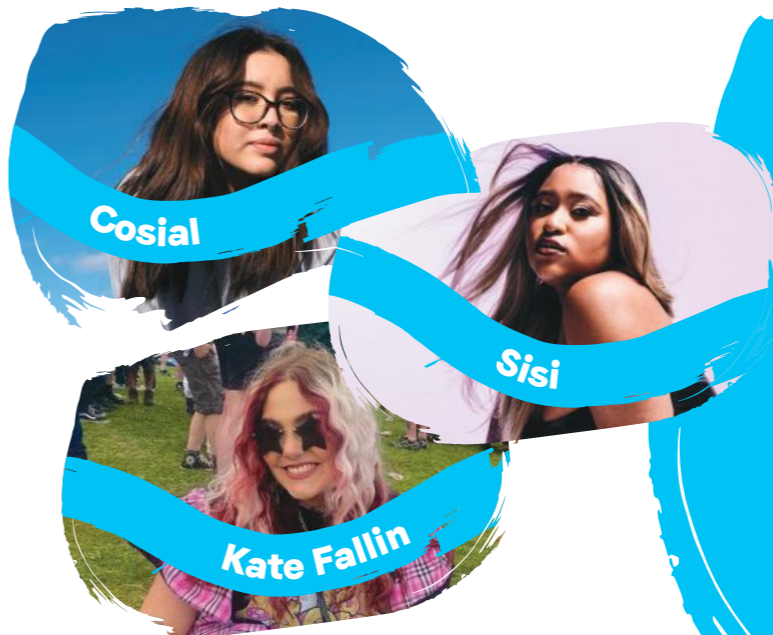

Suitable for children aged 6+

14-15

The Sound of Our Town - A Man Called Adam (YP)
📍 Boating Lake 🕒 Sat 26 & Sun 27

Electronic music pioneers A Man Called Adam (think literal originators of Balearic Beats!) are back in their native North-East and have created a new piece of music with young people in Teesside.

The resulting piece will be played through solar powered speakers on the Esplanade.

The Bandstand Sessions (YP)
📍 Bandstand 🕒 Sunday only

11.45am - Young people from Tuned In!

12.30pm - Sisi

1.15pm - Young people from Tuned In!

2pm - Cosial

2.45pm, 3.15pm - Young people from Tuned In!

4pm - Kate Fallin

Sisi

For fans of Afropop and garage, singer songwriter Sisi may still only be 18, but she's already played Reading & Leeds Festival & been named track of the week by Radio 1xtra's Theo Johnson.

Cosial

Another Cece heads up exciting new band Cosial. Singer, songwriter and musician, Cece writes indie bedroom pop that meshes a dark lyrical content with catchy upbeat instrumentals.

Kate Fallin

Kaitlyn is best known as one of Komparisson's founding members and we're delighted to welcome her new solo side project Kate Fallin for this rare hometown gig.

The Quest of Queen Jellyfish - Tees Women Poets ⇌ YP
📍 Bandstand 🕒 Sunday only 1.15pm, 2.45pm, 4.20pm

Join Queen Jellyfish and her subjects on a quest around the Boating Lake as you join her Royal Court!

Children are the future guardians of this planet and we invite you to join our interactive parade of discovery to learn all about Redcar so you can help protect its future on behalf of her Royal Highness!

High Flyers - Apus Productions ⇌
📍 Walkabout 🕒 Saturday only 12pm, 1.30pm, 3pm

The High Flyers have come with a message from the future – but find themselves unable to communicate through words!

Funny, thought-provoking and programmed following feedback from our young people who cited 'the future' as one of their concerns, this is a non-verbal performance accessible to all. Catch the High Flyers on walkabout throughout the town.

16-17

Cali & Keeper - Artemis ⇌
📍 Esplanade 🕒 Sunday only - 11.30am, 1.30pm, 3.15pm

Cali has 8 legs, three hearts, is super intelligent and very friendly.

Cali is a larger than life octopus walkabout character who will be joined by Captain Barnacle to explore the streets of Redcar.

Make sure you stop by and say hello!

Puppet workshop - Lucy Leaver 🏠
📍 Tuned In! 🕒 Sat & Sun 11am-4.30pm Drop in

Blown away by some of the amazing puppets you've seen during our festival? Why not have a go at making your own?

Join artist Lucy Leaver for a fun session & create your very own puppet! Suitable for children 4+ this is a free drop-in workshop.

Ocean Crown Workshop - Adele Catchpole 🏠
📍 Tuned In! 🕒 Sat & Sun 11am-4.30pm Drop in

Children are the custodians of our oceans so we thought they deserved some crowns!

Join artist Adele Catchpole for this free workshop that repurposes scrap and recycled materials into stunning stencilled creations.

Suitable for children aged 4+, drop in and create a magnificent sea-themed crown.

Breakdancing workshop - Alex Rowland 🏠
📍 Redcar Leisure Centre 🕒 Saturday only - 12pm, 1.30pm, 2.45pm

Join us for an exciting breakdancing workshop led by leading dancer and teacher Alex Rowland!

Your little ones will have the chance to learn the coolest dance moves around and develop their breakdancing skills in a fun and supportive environment. With Alex's expert guidance, children will learn the basics of popping, locking, and breaking, and will get to showcase their new moves in a friendly street-style dance battle.

Suitable for ages 7 – 11, the workshops are free but you'll need to book a place here www.redcarcleveland.co.uk/enjoy

Support local. Support independent.

This festival was programmed, produced and funded by Redcar and Cleveland Borough Council.

The festival is supported financially by Arts Council England.

The festival is a touring network partner in Without Walls, a consortium of festivals and arts organisations bringing fantastic outdoor arts to people in towns and cities across England. This year, funding has allowed us to programme Theatre for One, Lives of Clay and Flood.

Our Festival Summer School was supported by the Department for Education and Bring It On!

During the production of this festival, we worked with over 300 children and young people to shape the festival - some of the branding is even taken directly from their work. This is for them!
