SALTBURN ICE TRAIL

Saltburn Town Centre

Saturday 17 December, 10am – 4pm

FREE!

A frosty winter adventure is coming to Saltburn...

After the success of last year's Ice Trail, renowned ice sculptors Sand In Your Eye will return – but this time to Saltburn, placing nine amazing ice sculptures across the town, creating a wonderful trail with pop up festive performances, for families and folks to discover.

Just drop in across the day, grab yourself an Ice Trail sheet (either print your own or pick one up from one of our event stewards) and check off each sculpture as you find it by following this handy guide. Those that complete this festive frosty walk will also receive a small prize and be entered into our special competition!

You will also be able to experience a live ice carve and see the talented artists at Sand In Your Eye at work AND there will also be a letter writing workshop where the elves can help you write your letter to Santa and post them first class to his workshop in our very own special ice post box! ...

...And if that isn't enough enjoyment throughout the day there will be an array of festive performances and walk-about theatre across the day.

REDCAR LIGHTS SWITCH ON AND ILLUMINATION PARADE

Redcar Town Centre, Sunday 27 November
High Street Animation – 2.30pm
Main Stage Programme – 3.30pm
Illumination Parade – 4pm
Light Switch On – 5.30pm

The magical season of Christmas kicks off in spectacular style in Redcar Town Centre and we hope you will join us in what will be an evening of stunning visual displays, performance, music, lights, and all-around joy!

Following on from last year's Illumination Parade, we are bringing a creative spectacle to the town of Redcar with representatives from schools and community groups throughout the borough as we Deck the Shores!

Over 200 participants will throng the streets with artwork created with professional artists, including lanterns costumes and exciting visual spectacles that will light up the route from the Civic Centre to Redcar Town Clock. The parade will also be decked with professional performers, with the sights and sounds of everything festive whilst being entertained by outstanding musical artist Sisi as well as Groove Inc for a little bit of soul, funk, and Christmas classics, supported by the emerging talents of Tuned In's young people. And if that wasn't enough, the big button will be pressed by Three Redcar Christmas Stars – three community champions nominated by you for their acts of kindness over the past year – along with the Mayor of Redcar and Cleveland.
